Civilians Hear Talk on Southern Scholarships

Dr. Samuel T. Lastering, Executive Vice-President of the Southern Scholarship and Research Foundation, Inc., met with the Belle Glade Civilians on June 11, at the Holiday Inn in Belle Glade.

At part of his program, Dr. Lastering showed a 16mm. color sound film which described the Southern Scholarship and explained how it helped students at Florida State University.

The purpose and advantages of the Foundation Scholarships were explained. On a dollars and cents basis, Dr. Basting told the group, Foundation Scholars realize a saving of about $186.00 for three quarters. Free housing, cooperative, low-cost meals and rich and rewarding associations with students of similar goals and standards are provided by the Foundation. It also assists Scholars to obtain summer employment and part-time jobs during the school year.

Invitation to membership, announced Dr. Lastering, is extended to all who share the Foundation's concern for the conservation of human talent.

Erta Browne
Library that Erta Browne has been remembered. Before the hurricane, a Colonel Harbison had donated a book case full of books, which was set up in the hotel. After the storm the Greater Palm Beach Athletic Club donated $500 worth of books for the old school had been washed away, but the books were still in charge of the Woman's Club that is to say, of Erta Browne.

Foreseeing the need for a city park, the Woman's Club donated the school board to deed to the city the two and a half acre where the school had been, for after all, the settlers had bought the land from the state and given it to the county in order to get that school built. Then in 1932-33 the Woman's Club and the Garden Club, by various fund raising projects and much volunteer labor, erected the Community Club building which still stands in McDonald's Park. And this became the new home of the library.

Local ladies, including Mrs. Adrian Deane and Mrs. Thomas Breger from the Experiment Station, spent many hours researching, classifying and shelving the books there. Erta Browne volunteered to be librarian for which her remuneration for a right long time was $2 a year, that is to say, her club dues. Later she received $55 a month, but her highest pay finally, before she finished her twenty years at the job, was $150. By that time she had 3000 books, and this is said to have been the first free library in Florida.

Erta Browne, with her bushy white head and humorous smile, was highly praised by those famous historians Alfred J. Hanna and Marjorie Stowman Douglas, while researching on their histories of the Everglades. In the Miami Herald in 1942 Douglas wrote, "In my recent travels about this fascinating country around Lake Okechobee, one of the most noteworthy people I have run across is Mrs. J. F. Browne, who for years has been the guiding force and the hard working librarian of the small but well chosen Free Public Library of the town of Belle Glade."

"Noteworthy" is right. To that we can say, "Amen, brother!"

"And we were accused of misrepresentation when we warned that registration was a possibility, and of being downright irresponsible when we suggested that firearms registration was being seriously considered."

"Well, who's right now? The NRA voiced the suspicion that control of interstate sales of firearms might be the 'first step' toward such measures as registration. And we were right. Several bills have now been introduced to accomplish national registration of firearms, and pressure is being applied in congress to rush this measure through to completion. This is the 'second trip' which we fear."

ALL P.B.C. SCHOOL FULLY ACCREDITED

The Palm Beach County School Board has been notified by the Florida State Department of Education that all its schools have again been fully accredited. Accreditation means that the schools have met at least minimum State of Florida standards.

However, 21 of the county's schools - though fully accredited - have been listed as having "limited deficiencies" compared with 18 having such "limited" or "minor" deficiencies in last year's State accreditation report.

State accreditation covers all schools with grades one through 12. It should not be confused with the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools' annual accreditation report on the county's 15 senior high schools which is published later in the calendar year.

Actually, the State Department of Education report accredits 87 schools this year, and lists three others as "Approved." The "Approved" label is always applied to new schools which, at their first year's experience at the time of the accreditation survey, or to special schools which, in their first year, cannot be assessed by standards set for regular schools.

The three "Approved" schools in this year's report are: Kissimmee Elementary School, Boca Raton, which is completing its first school year, June 1, and though judged "up-to-standard" has not yet qualified for official accreditation; Royal Palm School, for exceptional children, and Sabal Palm School, West Palm Beach, which is operated in conjunction with the Juvenile Court authorities.

Accreditation studies focus on personnel, including whether fully qualified and certified teachers are instructing in field; school programs, school buildings, including their adaptability to curricular needs, and health and safety factors.

Accreditation reports offer both guidelines to school boards and school administrators on the status of the schools, and a report to the public on the standing of the public schools in their county in accordance with minimum State accepted standards.

Superintendent Robert W. Fulton expressed pleasure at the 100 per cent accreditation report and pointed out that this is the third year in which all Palm Beach County Schools have been fully accredited by the State Department of Education.

THOUGHT OF THE WEEK

It is not the man who has little, but he who desires more, that is poor.

SENSING THE NEWS

By Thomas Sensing

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Southern States Industrial Council

As the country plunges into the election season, with candidates for the presidential nomination stepping up their campaigns, there is a depressing air of stalemate and pessimism. So many of the proposals by the candidates have the smell of defeatism about them. Their ideas for running the United States during the next four years smacked of philosophies that have failed.

The American people may be discerning that the country has traveled too far down one road to a dead end. The nation needs a new start and under new leadership.

Seven years ago, when the Kennedy administration took power, the country was forced into a path that to many citizens seemed alien and unwelcome. One disaster after another has struck this country since 1961.

There was the Bay of Pigs fiasco, in which the Kennedy administration failed to press a head and re-win Cuba for freedom. Then there was the Cuban missile crisis of 1962, which led the Reds firmly in control of Cuba and resulted in the U. S. quietly withdrawing its missiles from Turkey.

By Russell Kay

Millard W. Newman, Tampa cigar manufacturer, will lead a parade of old cars built in 1914 or before, on a coast to coast run ending in San Francisco, commemorating the 60th anniversary of the 1908 New York Times Paris automobile race, longest ever staged.

The event represents years of planning by Florida old car enthusiasts. At one time it was planned to actually cover the complete 1908 run which was won by George Schuster in a Buick-made Thomas Flyer, via Japan and Siberia to Europe but could not be obtained so it was decided to cover only the U. S. part of the run.

The event is scheduled to start the morning of June 15 from New York where George Schuster will be on hand to answer questions and wish them the best of luck.

Each of the ancient car drivers entered in the event will be presented with a copy of a new edition of "The Longest Auto Race" written by George Schuster with the help of Tom Mahoney as an expansion of the

England, So Familiar Yet Strange

By Edith Freedlund

The famous Big Ben in London.

I flew on to London after leaving the Ringling Tour in Madrid. It was wonderful to be met by my friends, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Jeffries, who moved here from Belle Glade last year. This air port is immense and most confusing. My visit in Northwest, Middlesex was always remembered as a high light of my trip. Their home is situated on a corner with a low white fence with rose bushes and tulips circling the lot. Northwest is sixteen miles from London.

The situation is perhaps even more disturbing on the home front. The domestic tranquility that has been maintained in the past, in time of war, has damaged the dollar, to the point where a major monetary crisis threatens to overwhelm the nation. The Johnson administration has failed utterly in maintaining the domestic tranquility that the Johnson administration has maintained. Several public figures of the administration do have actually encouraged the social rebellion that now causes massive upheavals in the nation's cities.

The environment of Liberalism that has been dominant in the federal government since 1961 has given the demonstrators a feeling of great confidence. They are the nation's capital in late April and they will camp there until Congress meets their demands.

Take the third outing. Instead of a lot of children, I found a lot of children. The shopping district is busy with women carrying big baskets, as there seems to be few if any men. Many women ride bicycles. There are various stores to trade in - fish monger, green grocer, fruit

A gaily dressed Yeoman Warder, often referred to as a "Beefeater," guards the Tower of London.

"excuse me," they say "sorry about that." Everything that is especially nice is "lovely." There are quite a few small three wheeled trucks. I was extremely fortunate to attend the Beta Sigma Phi Founders' Day Banquet with Mrs. Jefferies. Women from nine chapters attended, and there were almost one hundred women present. The Victoria Cross Star of Indian and Order of the British Empire were presented. The American Officer's Club, which was decorated with bouquets of yellow tulips and narcissus. There was one tall candleabra with yellow roses and carnations. After the meal, and before the program, the Toastmistress said, "Be upstanding, a toast to the queen." Everyone raised her glass and said, "To her majesty, the Queen." Then she was told, "Smoking is allowed."

The Tower of London is associated with English History. We crossed a moat and saw one of the Ravens, a black black bird. There are six ravens left, one is twenty years old. The legend is that if all the ravens die, England will lose her Empire. There is a metal plaque in the walls at the site of the scaffold where Anne Boleyn died. I saw many Warders, commonly called Beefeaters, are guarding the Tower. Their long skirts, red hose, black trimmed hats and staffs are very picturesque. November fifth is celebrated as Guy Fox Day. He tried unsuccessfully to blow up Parliament and was put on the rack. Sir Walter Raleigh lived here and was later beheaded in the pool.

Uncle Sam From Doolie Says

Dear Mister Editor:

Bug Hookum, that ain't afraid of work and can't lay down being old to go to sleep, told the fellers at the County Store Saturday night he's powerful worried about his new anti-discrimination age law that was in effect June 1. He said it was bound to cause a heap of worry amongst us older fellers.

Bug said this new law don't allow old folks to work on hiring, firing, or promoting a worker. He was of the opinion this new law comes under the heading of Government over-protection. It seems the Government, Bug allowed, has stuck "over" in front of everything. Franklin Roosevelt, he said, was over-spent, overtaxed, overproduced, overvalued and overworked and now we got a law that tries to make old fellers overworked.

Ed Doolie, that was up on enough matters, told Bug the old age worker law don't keep a feller on the job whether he wants to work or not. Ed explained the law was passed to keep workers from getting fired just on account of they was getting a little age on them. Ed don't hold much for the Great Society, but he said he don't have nothing against this law. He told the fellers the worst thing he could think of was having to retire and be one of them senior citizens. But law was good to Ed, and when you consider if you ain't getting old you're in the cemetery, and this business of making a career out of being old don't appeal to him none.

Zack Grubb, that was a long wagon-grassing past 65, was agreed with Ed. He said he was reading the other day about this senior citizen party where they give prizes to the members for things like the most recent surgery, the most number of natural teeth and the most grandchildren. Ed said it sounded to him like they was judging them senior citizens like they was cattle at the county fair.

It was Clem Webster that spoke up defending the senior citizens, claimed they was the only ones we got left in a world gone crazy. He told the fellers he had even saw where one of them big machines was trying to get rid of old folks that was subscribers on account of they didn't buy no liquor or deodorant or cigarettes and was deadwood for the advertisers.

Posh Clodhopper was agreed with Clem, come out strong for the old folks and senior citizens. But law was something he looked like he was going to have to go when his parts wore out. He said he had saw where one heart transplant patient's hospital bill was $28,845 and they wasn't many hearts that could afford new parts at that rate.

Personal, Mister Editor, I aim to take extra care of my parts and hope to be a senior citizen until we get peace on this earth of ours.

Yours truly,
Uncle Dan

District Meetings In July

Rainbow said approximately 10,000 delegates are expected at each of the conventions. He said 36 Belle Glade members will attend the St. Petersburg convention.

E. W. Hooper, convention manager, said in St. Petersburg that an additional 1,000 delegates will attend a simultaneous Spanish-language assembly in the Neptune Room of Bayfront Center.

"St. Petersburg will serve Central and South Florida," Hooper said, "and Jacksonville will serve the other states and several foreign countries."

Rainbow said the convention is held annually to review organizational questions; discuss growth factors and expansion plans; and analyze spiritual issues affecting the modern world. This will be accomplished by Bible lectures, dramatizations, discussions and symposiums, he said.

In this age of violence, Rainbow said, "there is a need for all members of the family to unite together in worship and to appreciate the critical aspect of the times in which we live and how we may cope with the challenge of our times, too," he added.

Keep It Beautiful

If America hired people for the job, it would take the largest sort of army to keep our country free of litter.

But there's no need to hire anyone. It's a job we can do for ourselves. All of us. Every family that spreads a picnic lunch. Every boatman who cruises the lakes and waterways. Every motorist who uses our roads and highways.

It is the pleasure of the U. S. Brewers Association each year to give its fullest support to the Keep America Beautiful Campaign. Remember: Every Litter Bit Hurts. This is our land. Let's treat it right.

Chevelle prices not only start a full $100 less than other mid-size cars-it's more car.

We've thought of things for Chevelle that other mid-size cars would like you to forget.

For instance, that full-lined package above gives you a ride that rivals bigger higher priced cars. (That's because we thought to give it Full Coil suspension. And a separate frame with a computer-refined mounting system cushioning its Body by Fisher.)

The choice of engines and transmissions you have is the greatest in Chevelle's field. And if you're a performance buff, you'll find we did some thinking on your wave length: black-grilled $5,396's with Turbo-Jet V8 power you can order up to 350 horses strong.

You also get more ways of putting your personal stamp on a Chevelle than any other mid-size car offers. Take wheel covers alone. You can order simulated wire ones. Or mag-type. Or mag-type. Or mag-type.

Even so, Chevelle prices start a full $100 under any competitive mid-size cars. Now's that for a parting thought!

YOUR MONEY

By Richard A. Pirota

The first savings and loan association in America was the Oxford Provident Building Association, organized in Pennsylvania, in 1831. That early town is now a part of Philadelphia, and its greatest claim to fame remains the birth of that first savings and loan association.

There were 37 members in that first association. It was different from today's association in being a cooperative, open only to members. The idea was that each member put in a specified sum each week or month. When enough money was accumulated one member could get a loan to buy or build a home. Incidentally, that privilege of getting the loan went to the highest bidder . . . the member willing to pay the highest "premium." Later, as more savings accumulated additional members could obtain loans . . . until each member had had the chance. After that, the association had fulfilled its purpose and was dissolved.

Our savings and loan association of course, is not "closed" to members only, either for savings or home loans. Even if you've never met us, you'll find a warm welcome here . . . and a desire to serve you, with planned savings or financing.

Methodist Youngsters Receive Certificates

Nursery school and kindergarten at the Community Methodist Church ended for the year with a picnic at the marina for the four-year olds, their parents and teachers, Monday, May 27.

WRESTLING THIS WEEK

A "Man Over the Top Rope" wrestle royal will top the big five bout at the Belle Glade Armory this Thursday night. Nine wrestlers, all in the ring at the same time will be contending for a $200.00 bonus in addition to the purse.

The rule is over the top rope, with wrestlers throwing each other out of the ring till only one is left to claim the purse and bonus.

Battling it out in the unusual nine man match will be Seiji Sakaguchi, Duke Komaka, Koa Tiki, Ronnie Paul, Gorza Lazana, Coach John Heath, Don Serrano, Miguel Perez and Bob Griffen.

Four other matches are to be made up from the nine men, making a total of five on the Thursday night mat card.
